

fact sheet

Originally built by Lady Anne Barnard in 1799, the Vineyard Hotel & Spa has spectacular views of the forested slopes of Table Mountain.

This deluxe 207 roomed hotel is situated in six acres of attractive landscaped parkland in the lush leafy suburb of Newlands on the banks of the Liesbeek River.

It boasts two outstanding restaurants. The glass-roofed "the square" restaurant caters for breakfast and dinner, while "myoga" restaurant, under the ownership of Mike Bassett, offers lunch and dinner with excellent views of the garden and Table Mountain.

Relax at the heated outdoor and indoor swimming pool, adjoined by the state-of-the-art Health & Fitness Centre, "Vineyard Shop" (a clothing and gift boutique) and "Splash Café" (a contemporary health bar).

This beautiful establishment offers rooms ranging from single to family suites, both mountain and courtyard facing, all with free high-speed internet access. Hotspots in public areas.

The dedicated 2 storey "Vineyard Conference Centre" is one of the finest venues in the Cape for conferences, weddings or special occasions. Voted "The Best Conference Centre" by South Africa's top Professional Conference Organisers for two years running.

Angsana Spa is situated alongside the health & fitness centre. This speciality spa is operated by the international Banyan Tree Spa Group and is the first international spa in South Africa.

The Vineyard Hotel & Spa is world renowned for its warmth and efficient service and is just 15 minutes to all the delights of greater Cape Town.
